Coyote House built for Eagle Scout Project

William "Tyler" Jobes, from Troop 101 in Fort Myers, FL, selected Shy Wolf Sanctuary for his Eagle Scout project because of his interest in non-profit organizations and a fondness for wolves.

Meet Baby Girl

Prairie Dogs are native to the western United States and considered a keystone species because they are an essential member of our prairie ecosystems. Yes, they look cute and cuddly and are quite the busy burrowers!

In Memory of Lobo

It is with heavy hearts that we share the sudden and unexpected passing of Lobo. He seemingly crossed in his sleep as we all would like to go. A senior member of the sanctuary, he held a unique place that was belied by his common name.

Lobo came to us 14 years ago as a young pup who was out of control just being a pup and chewing things...chairs, sofas, and harnesses. He was immediately placed within a family group and quickly became the stern but benevolent leader.

His group got the nickname "the Brat Pack" because they were mischievous and banded together. A regal and sweet personality was matched only by the beautiful way he phased, at times resembling a silverback gorilla.

We know Lobo is at peace with Kawani, Four Socks, Nokomis, and the rest of the pack gone before him. Your prayers and healing thoughts are greatly appreciated for the two and four legged family he leaves behind, particularly Waya.
